Setting Up Your Account

Berkeley has implemented a new system for you to reset your Blackboard password on your own without having to call, open a ticket or chat with the Helpdesk

Using security questions that you set-up in advance, you will be able to reset your login credentials, even if you don't know the password. In order to use the system, you must initially set it up.

1. To do this, please click on the Forget Your Password? link.
